VIVOTEK Expands Its New Office and Commits to Supply the Best Products & Services

In order to accommodate more personnel and uphold the rapid growth in sales, VIVOTEK has acquired an additional 2,166 m² office in a separate factory building. Having recruited more than 30 employees since 2007 Q1, VIVOTEK is expanding its office space to give employees a more comfortable working zone. In addition, due to the separation of its subsidiary company, established by the SoC Group Dep. RD2, VIVOTEK is also reconstructing its current office.

"Constructing a modernized office with functional facilities is beneficial to form a consolidated team", said Owen Chen, Chairman of VIVOTEK. "In the future, we will continue delivering more high-quality products to the marketplaces and providing the best service to our customers."
