VIVOTEK is Honored with the 10th Taiwan SMEA "Rising Star Award"

VIVOTEK has successfully passed a rigid selection procedure and been awarded with the "10th Rising Star Award" by Taiwan's Small and Medium Enterprise Administration (SMEA), Ministry of Economic Affairs. There are more than 70 companies applying for this award, and only 9 of them obtain this honor. Those winners, possessing the potential to be the rising star of Taiwan, all have outstanding achievements in the global market, and have remarkable competitive edge & management system.

"Our success definitely resulted from our employees' long endeavors." says Owen Chen, Chairman of VIVOTEK, "After seven-year hard-working, we have produced many cutting-edge IP surveillance solutions and gained a robust position on international stage. We are rooted in Taiwan, and attempt to expand our business

VIVOTEK IP7137 Got the Best of Test Prize by Svět Hardware

Svět Hardware conducted a product test of IP cameras with WiFi system, and finally honored VIVOTEK IP7137 with the best product. Eight cameras—Air Live WL-5400CAM, Air Live WL-5420CAM, Air Live WL-5460CAM, D-Link DCS-950G, Edimax IC-1500Wg, Level One WCS-2030, Linksys WVC54GC-EU, and VIVOTEK IP7137—were chosen to participate in this product test. Among those IP cameras, the tester was deeply impressed by the excellent performance of VIVOTEK IP7137 and gave it the highest evaluation. "VIVOTEK seemed to me as the best product among all of them, especially because of its rich channels all over the world. With this glory, VIVOTEK will relentlessly devote to working more diligently so as to achieve their goal—A Leading Provider of Multimedia Communication Solutions.

VIVOTEK Receives the Honor of Security 50

VIVOTEK is so excited to announce that we again receive the honor of “Security 50”, conducted by A&S, a leading trade publication and media since 1997. Not only does this annual ranking aim at finding the most influential, thriving and future-proofing companies of security industry, but also serves as a platform for a total checkup, revealing some noteworthy trends in security industry. With the glory, VIVOTEK is recognized by the industry as the world’s leading network video surveillance provider with strong growth in sales revenue and profit.

“Any move made by the world’s top 50 security companies could affect the global industry and security markets, leading to innovation in technology,” states by the editor of A&S. VIVOTEK, as a leading provider of network cameras in Taiwan, always initially put forth many revolutionary products to the markets. “We are very pleased to win this prestigious honor second time in a row,” said Owen Chen, the chairman of VIVOTEK. “To step ahead in this industry and stay our leading positioning, we are now devoting more R&D investment this year. Shortly, as Taiwan’s rising star, we will continuously deliver the most cutting-edge technologies and top-of-line products to the markets.”
